LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL LIQUOR DEALERS .- The act as passed by the city Councils "to license, tax, and regulate wholesale dealers," provides that after the first day of November next the annual tax upon a license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors, wines, cordials, and all intoxicating fiquors in quantities less than a pint, by wholesale" or retail, shall be forty dollars; where the annual average amount of capital invested in the business of the person or persons applying for such license is under one thousand dollars, forty five dollars; where it is one thou sand dollars or over, and under two thousand dollars. fifty dollars; where it is two thousand dollars or over, and under four thousand dollars, fifty-five dollars; where it is four thousand dollars and over, and under six thousand dollars, sixty dollars; where it is six thousand dollars or over, and under nine thou sand dollars, seventy dollars; where it is nine thou sand dollars or over, and under twelve thousand dollars, eighty dollars; where it is twelve thousand dollars or over, and under fifteen thousand dollars, ninety dollars; where it is fifteen thousand dollars or over, and under eighteen thousand dollars, one hundred dollars; where it is eighteen thousand dof lars or over, and under twenty-five thousand dollars, one hundred and five dollars; and where the capital invested amounts to over twenty-five thousand dollars the tax shall be one hundred and ten dollars. These several rates of taxes shall be paid to the cor poration by the persons applying for such licenses. It further provides that persons taking out such ticenses shall give good security to the amout of $200 each, that they shall not violate the law; and as we stated yesterday, prohibits the selling or permission to sell any liquors to be drank on the premises, the penalty being the same as for selling without a license. We gave yesterday the yeas and nays in the Board of Aldermen on the passage of the bili-those in the Board of Common Council were, yea: — Messrs. Newman, C. A. Davis, Barr, Plant, Donn, Walker, Duncanson, Ball, Clements, Busey, Cross-Bamberger, Gill, Davis, (President.) Nays—Messrs J. W. Davis and Killmon. The act of October 31, 1848, so far as it conflicts or is inconsistent with this act, is repealed. Mr. Borrows, Alderman from the Third Ward, is the author of this bill. Among the grocers who remonstrated against the passage of the act, were Messrs. Samuel Bacon & Co., and Messrs. Thomas Parker & Co. We have not ascertained yet whether the Mayor has or has not signed to

GRAND PARADE-CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE MON UMENT .- The staff and other officers of the Wash ington Regiment met at the dwelling of Major Bacon, a few evenings since, and resolved to have a full parade on Thursday next, the anniversary of the battle of Yorktown. The order for the parade, for exercise and review," is given in obedience to orders from Brig. Gen. Weightman, the companies to meet in front of the City Hall, at 10 o'clock, a. m. The order of Col. Hickey, signed by Adjt. L. Middleton,

"On this occasion the Legion will be presented to His Excellency the President of the United States for review; after which it will march in column to the National Washington Monument, around which it will form in circle, and, after a military salutation. every officer and volunteer in the Legion will be afforded an opportunity to record his name as a con tributor to the erection of this monument, in such amount as each, judging for himself, can conve-niently afford to give. Thus will the Legion smite. heart and hand, with patriotic fervor, to commeno rate the anniversary of a day on which the American troops, aided by Lafayette and the French amy and navy, all under the lead of Washington, broke the last link in the chain of despotic power, and cleared the American soil for the unencumbered growth of that noble tree of liberty, to repose quietly under whose ample shade is the right of every American citizen. The names so registered will acquire a right to be preserved together, and remembered as a contribution of a Legion of freemen to the consecration of a monument to endure for ages, in memory of him who was 'First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen.".

ISRAELITISH FRAST OF THE TABERNACLE. remembrance of the departure of their ancestors from Egypt, for the Land of Canaan, passing through the desert for forty years, the Israelites commenced its commemoration on Friday evening last, and held Saturday and Monday as days of holy Convocation The ordinance relative to this festival, is thus recorded in the Holy Bible: "On the nineteenth day of this seventh month shall be the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days unto the Lord, &c., &c. And ye shail take unto your elves on the first day the fruit of the tree. Hadar, (Citron,) branches of Palm trees and the boughs of the Myrtle tree and Willows of the brook, and ye shall rejoice before the Lord your God seven days, and ye shall keep it as a feast unto the Lord seven days in the year; it shal be a statute forever throughout your generations; in the seventh month shall ye celebrate it. In booths (Tabernacles) shall ye dwell seven days; all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths, in order that your generations may know that I caused the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt; i am the Lord your God " In compliance with this divine injunction, though ordaine upwards of five thousand years ago, the Israelites throughout the world hallow this day with the utmost sanctity. Each congregation has a Tabernacle erected contiguous to their Synagogue, in which the con gregations, after their service, assemble and enjoy the feast. The palm branch, citron, myrtle, and willow of the brook, are used in the Synagogue ser-

A WASHINGTONIAN IN A MELEE IN BALTIMORE .-An affray occurred yesterday near the Eighteenth Ward polls, Baltimore, in which Mr. David Brother ton of this city, became involved. It appears that he was attacked by a crowd of rowdies and escaped from them to his father's house, where they followed him. A police officer named Plowman, entered to preserve order just as Brotherton had drawn his revolver to defend himself, when it went off and at the same time another pistol was fired. One of the balls entered the officer's hand and wounded him severely, after which the bullies fell on Brothegion and beat him most brutally. The officer with a sitance from citizens, succeeded in reacuing him from their hands and took him to the police station, where he was kindly attended to, and we may say his life saved. It was thought that Brotherton would not be held under any charge, under the circumstances especially, as it is believed the pistol was fired by accident. Mr. Brotherton is one of the proprietors of the Arlington House in this city, and is a respectable young man who would not assault any one, though he is prompt at defending himself, let who COUNTERFEIT GOLD COIN .- We have heard of the circulation of counterfeit gold coin in our city of late. The denomination of the bad money is $1 and $4 50 pieces. The New York Journal of Commerce thus notices the larger piece: "We have seen a new counterfeit quarter earle, which was taken at the post office in this city. H is less exactly executed than the quarter dollar no ticed a day or two since, but is well calculated . deceive. It has not yet been analysed, but is supposed to be made of over 50 per cent, gold, and to be worth about $1 50. It bears date 1843, and has under the eagle, the letter O; which is placed upon the eoin struck off at the New Orleans branch mint. The wings of the eagle are less sharply cut than in the genuine coin, but the size of the coin is perfect, and it would be readily taken by any shoopkeeper.

CAUTION TO LADIES MAKING PRESERVES .- An esteemed lady of our acquaintance was suddenly taken ill yesterday. She had been engaged in preserving tomatoes in a copper or beil-metal kettle, and partook of a small quantity of fruit. A short time after she became distressingly dizzy and alarm- instant, and have assumed the attitude of a ingly ill. The verdigris from the metal doubtless caused the attack. An active emetic was given the sufferer, and the white of eggs administered, which happily effected speedy relief. Much caution should be observed by persons using metal vessels of this kind .- Union.

LAST NIGHT OF THE MAGICIAN.-This evening the celebrated Wyman gives his last entertainment at Odd Pellows' Hall, and presents an unusual array of attractions. He is certainly one of the very best artistes in his line that has ever appeared in Washington. To morrow and Saturday nights he performs at the Navy Yard, and we warmly recom mend to the good people of that vicinity to be sure and " see him.

RESCUE .- A pair of horses attached to a private carriage containing some ladies, ran away this morn itig on the Avenue, and might have done much damage but for the promptness and gallantry with which a gentleman named M arson rushed forward, se ized the reins and stopped the furious animals. The I dies were much alarmet, and expressed themselves very grateful to Mr. M. for his assistance.

RUM AND GOOD MANNERS .- On Tuesday night a gang of young men who had been indulging too freely in New England rum, got rather too high, and opened such a volley of oaths upon the passers by the corner of 8th street and the Avenue, that ladies could not pass. Conduct of this sort should be prevented, for if these rowdy boys be allowed to get drunk and curse and abuse females as they walk in the streets, gentlemen will be afraid to take their wives or daughters walking with them.

AMENDMENT TO THE BREAD BILL -An amend ment to the bread bill is betare a committee of the Councils, proposing that the weight of halt loaves of brend shall not be less than 7% nor more than 8% ounces; loaves, not less their 15% nor more than 16%; double loaves not less than 31% nor more than 12%, and that the loaves shall be stamped with their respective weights. It is the proposition of Mr. Barr, of the Becoud Ward.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA PANSENGERS ON THE ARCTIC .- We learn with deep regret that the Mr. Stewart Holland (misspelt by telegraph, yesterday, Hellin) was a son of Mr. Isaac-Holland, doorkeeper to the United States Senate. His relatives here ap prehend that the Mr. Hewitt, wi'e and child, reported as of Fredericksburg, Va., refers to Thomas Hewitt, of this city, son of the late Mr Wm. Hewitt, so long the Register of the Corporation of Washington. The youth named Robinson, said in the dispatches to be in one of the boats, which i is hoped are safe, is the son of Col. Wm. Robinson. of the Navy Department, who has so long resided in Georgetown, D. C.

A BITTER PILL-A few days since, a gentleman stopped at a restaurant in the Seventh Ward and called for some oysters. In the mess was a rotten one, which he swallowed before he knew it was defective. He soon found out the mistake, and being fearful of an attack of cholera he made for a grocery, where got a gill of salt and a pint of whiskey He swallowed the dose and went away satisfied. Rather a bitter pill, we think.

THE BAKER'S RULE .- The master baker's society has adopte 1 a rule which makes it their duty to see that no member of the society gives light weight to their bread. If any one breaks the rule he is informed upon by his fellow members, and the Corporation law enforced. The trial of one who had offended was ruled for trial bofore Justice Grubb this morning at 11 o'clock.

FILTHY GUTTERS AND SEWER .- We hear much complaint of the filthy state of the gutters and sewer at the northwest corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Twelfth street. All the aromatic scents of Butt's apothecary shop on the corner cannot destroy the foul smell. Will the Commissioner, if there is any, or the Board of Health, see to its purification?

FUNERAL .- Columbia Lodge, No. 10, I. O. O. F. are out in procession this afternoon, attending the funeral of Mr. James Edmonston, a deccased member of that Lodge. They are accompanied by a fine band of martial music, which discoursed solemn strains on the way to the resting place of the deal, Glenwood Cemetery.

GRAND BALL To-NIGHT .- Lovers of the dance, specially those near the Navy Yard, should remember that the grand opening ball of the Genevieve Club, is to take place this evening at the new Odd Fellows' in that locality. Every effort has been made by the gallant members of the Club to get it up

FIRE IN FARFAX .- A destructive fire was raging on Tuesday in the woods in Fairfax county, Va. and adjoining the estate of G. W. P. Custis, Esq.

THE TREES ON THIRTEENTH STREET .- Mr. Mayor. As the proposals for grading Thirteenth street be tween G and H, are to be opened to morrow, permit us once more, and for the last time, to solicit your interference, and stay the execution of the proposed work (not improvement) until the opening of the coming spring, in order that those who have to put up with the inconveniences resulting from the change, may at least have the beauties which accompany that season of the year, to mitigate in some degree the ills that have been allotted them by this wise deeree of the City Fathers-Heaven save the mark The whole neighborhood, with perhaps one or two exceptions, are desirous for this interposition of your uthority, and will feel grateful to you if exercised in their behalf. Certainly, the few who demand the execution of the law can interpose no objection to the request of the many that are to suffer by it, that a further respite be granted them, to make such preparations to meet the awful change. The very trees themselves, that are to suffer so summarily by the ax of the unfeeling executioner, cry aloud for the stay of the greedy blow. "Oh, if the ax must fall, let not the blow be dealt on us white yet attired in our holiday attire of crim-on and gold; let our gav garments be put away with the passing season; and when the winds of winter, for many a dreary day and night shall have howled a requiem through our naked branches, locking us in profound slumber, let us be in that repose, when the ruthless ax is to fall on our devoted heads."

WATCH RETURNS .- The journal at the guardhouse was entirely blank this morning. The only inmates of the rooms being a few persons who went Weather-Sudden Death - Scientific Lectures-Accident-Alexandrian in the Aretic-Nebraska House.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 12, 1854. The weather continues pleasant, and the little of disease left behind by the summer is fast disappearing.

On Tuesday evening, a colored man in the employment of H. Chatham fell dead in front of the stables belonging to that gentleman. The fall and winter lectures of the Alexandria Boarding School, kept by Benjamin Hallowell & Sons, commence on Friday evening. These lectures emb ace the entire range of the natural sciences, and will doubtless be attended by a large number of our citizens. Two evenings in each week can thus be spent very pleasantly and profitably. We are sorry to learn that a severe accident has befallen one of our most estimable young citizens, Mr. Samuel S. Gover, whilst engaged at the Virginia Car Works of Messrs. Smith & Perkins, on Wednesday morning last. One of the fingers of his right hand accidentally came in contact with the large saw, and was instantly severed from the hand. Surgical attendance was quickly procured, and he is now doing well.

Among the passengers in the ill-fated Aretic was Mr. James Muirhead, who for some time conducted the extensive baking establishment in our city now in charge of Mesers. Simpson & Son.

Mid the numerous similar establishments which of tate multiplied rapidly in our city, we can scarcely fail to notice the taste and elegance which characterize the furniture of the new "Nebraska House," Bontz & Co. The whole establishment has been gotten up on a scale seldom surpassed, and is well worth

The annual meeting of the Little River Turnpike Company was held in the Farmers' Bank yesterday afternoon, and the old officers re-elected.

Later from Mexico

Correspondence of the N. Y. Journal of Commerce. ACAPULCO, Mexico, Sept. 22, 1854. Captain H. Strocker, an American citizen, and bearer of dispatches from the American city. Legation in Mexico to Charles L. Denman, Esq., United States Consul at this port, with his entire party, amongst whom are some American ladies, were arrested by the government troops at Ayulta, and, after an imprisonment of some five or six days, removed to Ometepor, being still in close confinement.

The Mexican bark Santa Anna and schooner Guerero, arrived off the harber on the 10th blockade.

General Alvarez, after taking Ayulta and destr ying the fortifications, fell back on Providencia, owing to the appearance of the cholera.

A government courier was caught on the 19th by Alvarez's advance picket, with dispatches for General Palacias at Chilpacingi, ordering the immediate withdrawal of all his forces, as they were required in the capital, his intention being not to make a second attack on Acapulco.

STEALING LETTERS PROM THE POST OFFICE. The Richmond Enquirer of yesterday says !

A lad named John Hoffman alias John Lottier, was arrested yesterday morning at the Post Office by Mr. W. B. Read. Deputy Postmaster, upon the charge of stealing, and handed over to the police He confessed that he had called at the Post Office three mornings in succession and received the letters for the Despatch office, and robbed them of their contents. He was examined before U. S. Commissioner W. F. Watson, and committed fer trial before the U. S Court. The lad Hoffman alias Lotter is about 15 years of age. He figured, the reader will recollect, as a witness in the rial of Lottier for the murder of young Cook, a few years since. His own confession, if admissible, will ensure conviction.
